

Review Workshop: “Autism across the lifespan”

Inverclyde Academy
Cumberland Road, Greenock

Thursday 12th of March, 9:30am – 2:15pm

| | | | |
|---------------|--|---|---|
| 9:30 – 10:00 | Registration | | |
| 10:00 – 10:05 | Welcome and House Keeping | Michael McLennan | Community Development & Engagement Officer, The Advisory Group |
| 10:05 – 10:10 | Introduction | Allen Stevenson | Head of Service for Health and Community Care, Inverclyde HSCP |
| 10:10 – 10:20 | Review Team Introduction | Gillian Barclay | Strategic Lead for Dementia, Autism, and Learning Disability, Scottish Government |
| 10:20 – 11:05 | Starting out... A discussion of early years and the diagnostic process. Followed by table discussion and feedback | Loranda Guinnea Yvonne MacLema Laura Graham | Nurse Team Lead, Skylark ASD Team Lead, Skylark Founder of Kerr's Journey |
| 11:05 – 11:40 | Growing up... A look at how young people with autism are supported in schools. Followed by table discussion and feedback | Jan Spence | Principal Teacher, Inverclyde Communication Outreach Service |
| 11:40 – 12:20 | Moving on... An example of moving on to adulthood. Followed by table discussion and feedback | Parklea Belville HSCP Donna Elder | |
| 12:20 – 12:50 | Lunch | | |
| 12:50 – 13:30 | And beyond... Two generations of autism: a families experience. Followed by table discussion and feedback | The Bethel Family | |
| 13:30 – 14:00 | Focused discussions and Feedback Break into focus groups of choice | | |
| 14:00 – 14:15 | Closing words | Gillian Barclay Allen Stevenson/ | |

PLEASE NOTE: This event will be recorded and live streamed to the Inverclyde Autism Network Facebook group to help others to participate in the event. Additional footage will also be recorded for use in future training and information materials by Inverclyde HSCP. If you would not like to be shown and/or heard on camera, please tell one of the facilitators.